

COLTS LEFT AT POST BY CLEVER SOUTHPAW

Clunk Pitches in Fine Form for Trickers, and Lipe's Men Are Easy.

WALKER IS HIT HARD

George Cowan Scores First Run, While Smith Is Responsible for Second.

Mowed down as blades of grass before a scythe by Portsmouth's wonderful southpaw, and as changeable as a young girl's whim in their display of form in the field, nine of Lipe's Colts were left at the post in a slow and listless exhibition of baseball in Broad Street Park yesterday. When Umpire Pender called time, after Sandherr had gone out on an easy grounder from Morehead to Schrader in the ninth inning, the score-board record stood: Richmond, 0; Portsmouth, 2. A good finish.

The tallenders played like champions and the champions as schoolboys. Ragged fielding gave the Trickers both their runs, although if the result had been otherwise it would have appeared tough on Guilhem's toilers. Misfortune seemed to be with the visitors, and but for an unfortunate streak of bad luck Richmond would have suffered much more severely.

Some Spectacular Plays. Richmond did not have a look-in. The more than 3,000 fans watched the game in disgust, and after the seventh inning the rooters seemed to spend their last spark of energy, the game dragged to a miserable conclusion. There were a few happy rooters. In the front of the grandstand about a dozen Tricker enthusiasts took advantage of the opportunity to rub it in on the overwhelming majority.

Both teams played spectacular ball at intervals. Schumann's catch of Smith's crack to right field in the seventh was a sensational bit of fielding. The right fielder ran hard after the ball, and dived at it just before it struck the ground. He was given a

TARS KEPT BALL ROLLING ALL DAY

Made Seventeen Hits and Sixteen Runs off Vernuelle, and Bumped Griffin, Too.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] NORFOLK, VA., July 1.—Hitting the ball hard, while the Lynchburg team played poorly in the field, the Tars kept the ball rolling all day. The second game was called at the end of the seventh inning by agreement.

Both Vernuelle and Griffin were easy marks for the local batters, who fattened their averages considerably and ran away with the contests.

Fox and Volz were in good form and had the Shoemakers guessing, the visitors securing three runs on Fox only because he slowed up and took things easy after the fifth with a safe margin of 10 to 1 to his credit.

The only run off Volz came in the first and was due to the fact that he presented a free pass to "Rabbit" Lawrence in the opening inning.
